

Broadcast ownership:

The rules governing this rule have worked quit well in the past I see no need to change them. The citizens of the USA need to be protected from a monopoly of the airwaves and TV channels of all of the United States.

I vote NO! to the idea of relaxeing those standards already in place!

Feel free to contact me if you need more information on my views.

Best regards, Mark Smith